

Meet the luckiest guy in America!

Bob Guiney.

A rising singer-songwriter who by trade was a mortgage broker in Michigan, won the hearts of millions of television viewers when he was introduced to America on ABC Television Network's popular hit, The Bachelor. Ever since, Bob has been in people's living rooms as the host of ABC Daytime's Wide World of Soaps, national correspondent for ABC's The View, co-host of WE's 3 Men and a Chick Flick, co-host of Bravo TV's Battle of the Network Stars, and he has hosted countless specials for E! Entertainment Television and the TV Guide Channel. Bob is also the host of CMT's Trick My Trucker and TLC's Date My House.

Whether he's talking with George Clooney on a red carpet, hangin' out on the Oprah Winfrey Show, or he's talking with a listener about some goofy thing that happened over the weekend, Bob is equally as comfortable and gracious in any of these scenarios.

Real friendship and camaraderie is what translates when this great storyteller brings all of his world's together in a daily talk show on radio!

The Bob Guiney Show

from McMullen|Guiney Productions

Bob Guiney knows how to engage an audience and build loyalty. He's been doing it for the past several years on national television, as well as at live performance venues across the nation. He has enormous female appeal without being a turn-off or tune-out to male listeners.

He personifies the life that most guys would die for, while his sense of humor, artistic talent and sex appeal make him a hit with the ladies. With a live interactive radio program, Bob Guiney is just the solution to building and keeping listeners because he's their best friend before they even know it.

Learn more about the Bob Guiney Show by calling or writing John McMullen at McMullen|Guiney Productions in Palm Springs.

(760) 898-0030

john@mcmullenguiney.com

McMullen|Guiney Productions
P.O. Box 845
Cathedral City, CA 92235-0845